1) Numerous existing collaborations at European and International level.....	5
2) Reinforce partnership to achieve the scientific objectives of the SPIRAL 2 project.....	5
III. Analysis of the costs of GANIL SPIRAL 2	6
1) Investment.....	6
2) Operation costs.....	6
3) Details per project:.....	10
IV. A new model of partnership	13
1) To meet the challenges of GANIL-SPIRAL 2	13
2) Scenarios for cost sharing: towards a mixed model?.....	14
3) Fair-return.....	15
4) The implementation process of the partnerships	17

Task 1 (4/4)

- Identification of potential partners with previous ties to GANIL
- Poland
 - Discussions to become transitional partner
 - COPIN consortium will represent Poland
 - Past contributions were identified
 - A draft MoU has been written and sent to COPIN for review
- Czech Republic
 - Contacts were made
 - A declaration of interested was requested after the Czech ministry
- Belgium
 - Preliminary exchange was held with KU Leuven
 - Highly interested in partnering
- Germany
 - Their previous contributions to SPIRAL2 make them a key player

Conclusions (1/3)

- Achievements
 - First draft of GANIL's internationalization strategy
 - Presentation of this strategy at the June 2018 CODIR (GANIL “Comité de Direction”) meeting [T1]
 - Communication with future funding partners, including a first draft of the transitional partnership agreement with Poland [T1]
 - Strategy to develop patronage offers launched [T2]
 - Workshop on in-kind contributions [T3]
 - Launch of the new GANIL Users Group with the associated database and Web portal [T4]
- Challenges
 - Personnel changes

Conclusions (2/3)

- The WP is progressing on schedule
 - Met all deadlines
- The advancement of integrating new partners at GANIL looks promising
- The progress of the organization of GANIL users is also very satisfactory

Arguments for Project Prolongation

Beyond the achieved MS and Deliverables,
Prolongation would allow to deepen the work committed
(which raised fundamental and important questions on the organisation of GANIL)

- T1 : Finalisation of the student programme details
Signing the MoU with Poland
- T2 : Illustrate/validate the patronage offer with a specific partner
- T3 : Launch of IKRB and CBWG in beginning of 2020
- T4 : Organisation of events to promote GANIL in enlarged community
Preparing the GANIL 2021 experimental campaign

Any questions?

THANK YOU
