The screenshot displays the GANIL community portal website. At the top, the GANIL logo is followed by a navigation menu with links: ABOUT GANIL, SCIENTISTS, INDUSTRY, JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS, EDUCATION, PRESS, and CONTACT. Below this, a breadcrumb trail reads: Homepage > Scientists > Running an experiment in GANIL > GANIL User Group > GANIL community portal. The main heading is "RUNNING AN EXPERIMENT IN GANIL". On the left, a purple sidebar menu is open, showing the "GANIL USER GROUP" section with a dropdown arrow. This section contains links to: GANIL community portal, GANIL Users Executive Committee (GUEC), About GANIL User Group, GUEC Term of reference, GUEC meetings, Collaborations, Data Management Policy, GANIL Award for best Ph.D. Thesis, Contact, and Protected: area. Below this, other menu items are listed with right-pointing arrows: PROPOSING AN EXPERIMENT, BEAM SCHEDULE, PREPARING AN EXPERIMENT, PREPARING YOUR STAY, TNA ENSAR SUPPORT, and DATA MANAGEMENT PLAN. The main content area on the right is titled "GANIL community portal" and contains the following text: "The GANIL community portal site is devoted to registered users of GANIL facilities and to the creation of a new user account. You can request a login by connecting to this webpage: <https://u.ganil-spiral2.eu/portal>". It continues: "The goal is to provide all GANIL users with future applications using a unique ID. From now you can fill a questionnaire allowing to send you all information related to your activities (experiments, publications, scientific events, etc.) at GANIL." and "You can also choose to receive regularly the GANIL newsletters." It concludes with: "New features and options will be added to this site progressively." and "For any technical questions please contact portal@ganil.fr".

Summary of WP2.4 initiated work

1. GANIL-SPIRAL2 Collaboration kick-off meeting with general discussion
2. Creation of a database of GANIL-SPIRAL2 research groups and equipment
3. Creation of GANIL User Group (GUG)
4. Elections of GANIL User Executive Committee (GUEC)
5. Election of GUEC chair(s)
6. Definition of GUEC Terms of Reference
7. Co-organization of the GCM in Caen (2018). Colloque GANIL in Strasbourg (2019), Colloque GANIL 2021
8. Co-organization of the GANIL Prize Awards
9. GUEC is reviewing user oriented documents prepared by GANIL
10. GUEC is notified (gives opinions) about the calls for proposals and beam scheduling
11. Presentation of the achievements at the GSC 2019 and 2020
12. GUG webpage prepared

In 2021-2022 some of the established actions will be continued within GUEC
But essentially the work within WP2.4 has finished: all declared deliverables and milestones were fulfilled
